New Player Scoring Packet

Dynasty Football League

Here are a few stats or observations from the 2023 or old player scoring method.

- 1. The league's top performers, positions 1-35 we're all Quarterbacks & Kickers
- 2. The top five Running Backs on the top performers list: 46, 69, 70, 73, 74
- 3. The top five Receivers on top performers list: 35, 54, 55, 57, 58

During the off season I made a clone league of the 2023 season. With this league I ran many tests of different scoring methods, looking for a combination to further enhance and tighten up the league.

The goal of the revised scoring method is to increase the value of Running Backs (RB) and Receivers (R).

- » Rushing: PPA (point per attempt) QB, RB and Rec. will get 1 point for every rushing attempt.
- » Receiving: PPR (point per reception): QB, RB and Rec. will get 1 point for every reception.
- » Rushing and Receiving Yards: Lowering the minimum required yards before earning points. This will allow lesser used or committee Running Backs and Receivers to score points for their less usage in their teams' offense.
- » Passing Yards: QB, RB & R will get 5 points for 125 yards, them plus 5 points for every 25 yards.
- » This is a personal annoyance of mine. I never liked how the quarterbacks have that weird 250 yards and 75-yard milestones to reach before scoring points.
- » TD's: 5 points for every 10 yards, reducing from the 10 points. All touchdown points cut in half. The way the league is setup, long touchdowns dominate a team's weekly totals. By lowering their points, the league becomes more of a full team effort across the total scoring method.
- » Interceptions: QB, RB & R will get -5 points for every interception.
- » Field Goals: Kickers, field goals will be reduced by 5 points on each distance.

This improved points package will be implemented for this the 2024 season.

If you like the new package and ready for this season. Then do nothing and get ready for the draft. If you dislike the new package, email me at jeffnovy@gmail.com and share with me the reason why, so I understand your team's concerns.

If I receive 7 or more emails with legitimate reason why they prefer the old, outdated player scoring method. Then the old, outdated player scoring method will continue in 2024. An example for not a reason would be nostalgia or I don't like to change. These types of reasons are not legitimate reasons and will be disregarded. All votes for no change need to be emailed to me by July 20, 2024.

The commissioner will be out of the country from August 24th thru September 10th, 2024. There for the draft and free agent auction will be a week earlier this year on August 16, 2024 @ 7:30pm. Teams will only be allowed 28 players on there roster. Because there will be no drop and adds for week 1.

The following pages show the new points package and the difference between the old and new points package, minus the TD length change (the software would not refresh).
